

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

GENEALOGY

---

DESCENDANTS OF TWO JOHN WASHINGTONS.

---

ADDITIONS

(See Vol. XXII, 211 &c, 318 &c, 437 &c; XXIII, 96 &c.)

Lund Washington ("46. Lund<sup>5</sup> Washington," XXIII, 100) was born in King George County, Sept. 25, 1767, and resided there until 1786 when he went to Alexandria to be apprenticed to Col. R. T. Hooe to learn the business of a merchant. Later he removed to Washington, D. C., where he died in 1853. Throughout his life he was in close touch with the members of his family in Virginia, and knew a number of them of the generation preceding his own. He was interested in the history of his own and connected families, and by conversation, correspondence, and examination of records obtained a great deal of accurate information in regard to them. He left a manuscript (written about 1845) giving an account of the Washingtons of his own branch and of several related families. We are indebted to Mr. Edward S. Lewis, of St. Louis, for the use of a copy. Lund Washington seems to have been thoroughly acquainted with his own branch, which descended from John son of Lawrence, the emigrant, and with those of the descendants of John, son of John the emigrant, who had intermarried with his own line. He does not seem to have had much knowledge of General Washington's branch of the family, except as far as relates to his direct line of ancestry, and in regard to his brothers.

The style of the manuscript is, in places, rather confused and obscure; but, with the information available from other sources, it can easily be understood. It gives pleasure to state that, though it enables us to make some additions, it everywhere confirms the deductions made in the genealogy printed in this Magazine in Vols. XXII and XXIII.

Following are the additions from the Lund Washington manuscripts: 13. Col. John<sup>4</sup> Washington, of "Hylton" (XXII, 328) married secondly Catherine Washington. "He was then a widower with a son Henry and a daughter Elizabeth. I do not know what became of them. They left the country of King George about the time I did" (1786).

Issue of Col. John Washington by his marriage with Catherine Washington; 19. Nathaniel Washington (XXII, 330, 339) "married Miss Hawkins, a granddaughter of Mrs. De Butts and has a large family residing on the Patuxent River, Maryland"; 21. John Washington (ib. 329, 330) "married a daughter of Col. Skinker of Prince William County, moved to Alabama and had a large family;" 26. William Washington (ib. 329, 330) "married an English lady, Miss Craycroft. He resides in Alexandria with his two daughters unmarried;" 23. Lawrence Washington (ib. 329, 330) "married Miss Jane Willock, of Cecil Co., Md. He was born Dec. 10, 1770, and died Oct 21, 1828. She was born May 5, 1738 [1783;]. They were in Baltimore Jan. 24, 1812. Their issue James, born Jan. 24, 1814, a printer; Catherine, born June 4, 1816, married on June 5, 1826, James Mitchell, of Baltimore, who was adopted by his mothers husband, Jonathan Parker and took the name of Parker."

Lund Washington also names, apparently among the children of John and Catherine (Washington) Washington: Catherine who married Mr. Newley, of Culpeper County, and another John who married his counsin Polly Massey and had a number of children. There names do not appear in the list of children as given in Col. John Washingtons will.

15. Lawrence Washington (ib. 329) "nephew of Col. John Washington, of Hylton" (this is in accord with the printed geneology) "married March 1, 1763, Susanna, daughter of Robert Washington and lived at Mattox Creek. His daughters Betsy and Katy died without issue" (34 Elizabeth Starke, and 35, Katy).

65. Henry Washington (ib. 437) "married Catherine Bate. He lived lives about forty miles beyond Louisville and has about eight children and a fine estate."

67. Starke (T. H. Starke, ib. 437) Washington, died without issue; 71. Robert C. Washington "married two Sarah Fishers (cousins), has no children, lives in Danville, Ky., and has a fine estate." 61. Betty Washington (Elizabeth S. ib. 437) married 2d Thomas Seymour Starke (or Storke) 70. Mary (Mary West, ib. 437) married William James, of Washington, D. C. 73. Thornton Bernard Washington (ib. 437) and 74. Margaret (Peggy) died without issue.

Lund Washington names as sons of Lawrence and Susannah Washington: Richard Conway who was twice married. "By his present wife, Sophia, daughter of Mr. Roberts, of Alexandria, he has six or seven children. He resides in Washington, D. C., and is a clerk in the P. O. Department;" and (also as son of Lawrence) Charles Edward, "who removed to the West and has not been hear of for two years". Lund Washington states that Lawrence Washington had sixteen children. Richard C. was probably 71. Richard C. of the printed genealogy.

(XXIII, 97.) 2. John<sup>2</sup> Washington was born Aug. 2, 1671, and married March 15, 1692, being 20 years, 7 months and 13 days old, Mary Townshend, 2d daughter of Robert and Mary Townshend.

4. John<sup>3</sup> Washington lived at the seat of his father at the mouth of Chotank Creek. He married Miss Massey.

5. Robert<sup>3</sup> Washington was born Sept. 3, 1700, married April 1, 1722 (she being 14 years, 4 months and 26 days old) Sarah, daughter of Col.

Richard Fossaker. Robert Washington died May 13, 1765 and his wife on Nov. 25, 1761.

5. Townshend<sup>3</sup> Washington "lived at Greenhill at the head of Chotank Creek, where Mr. Lunsford Lomax now lives," married Jan. 1, 1727, Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Lund. He died Sec. 31, 1743, she died in 1778.

3. Lawrence<sup>3</sup> Washington married Sarah Lund, the sister of her brothers wife. "He was sheriff of King George and died without issue, being shot by the minister of the parish."

10. Lawrence<sup>4</sup> Washington, called "Digby," married his cousin Elizabeth Dade.

14. Catherine Washington married her cousin John Washington, of "Hylton."

13. Elizabeth Washington married Thomas Berry.

15. John<sup>4</sup> Washington, lived at Leeds Town. He was lame in both legs. He married first Miss Sanford, and had issue: Sally, Lawrence, John and Robert, all of whom died without issue; John<sup>4</sup> Washington married secondly Constantia Terrett. His daughter, 41. Mary, married 1st James Wray (by whom she had a son Washington Wray who died in infancy), and secondly, Andrew Balmaine, who died in 1815.

5. Robert<sup>3</sup> Washington and Sarah Fossaker his wife had issue (in addition to 15. John Washington) four other children. One of them, 16. Susanna Washington married March 10, 1763, her cousin Lawrence Washington, nephew of Col. John Washington, of "Hylton," lived on Mattox Creek and had issue already given in this instalment.

Issue of Townshend and Elizabeth (Lund) Washington: Susanna, born Nov. 3, 1727, died Feb. 1, 1728; 18. Thomas<sup>4</sup> Washington, a lawyer, died unmarried; 20. Townshend born Sept. 30, 1733, died Feb. 25, 1736; 21. Townshend born Feb. 26, 1736, died July 20m 1761 in the service of the Colony of Virginia; 22. Lund<sup>4</sup> born Oct. 21, 1737, died July 1796. "At an early age he was appointed manager of a large estate in Albemarle belonging to the Beverleys. Two years afterwards he was employed by Col. Henry Fitzhugh, of King George County, to manage his estate of Ravensworth, in Fairfax County. Two years afterwards by Col. (afterwards General) George Washington to manage Mt. Vernon estate, which he continued to do until 1785, being twenty-five years. He was a stout man, remarkable for his activity and industry, his close attention to business, his excellent management of plantation and household affairs, and his great frugality enabled him to make much money for h.s employers and to acquire a good estate for himself. He married his cousin Betsy Foote, about 1782, and had two daughters who died in infancy. He directed his slaves to be emancipated which was done by his widow. He left his estate to his widow, who left it to her nephew, William H. Foote, who has lately died without issue and left it to a charity school in Alexandria"; 21: Lawrence (twin), born March 14, 1740. He married his cousin, Catherine Foote, about 1745, and both died on the same day in

1799; 23. John (Twin), "was manager of the Dismal Swamp Company, a situation he held at the commencement of the Revolution when he was appointed a captain in one of the Virginia regiments of infantry. He was under General Washington's immediate command at the capture of the Hessians [at Trenton] and afterwards was promoted to a captaincy in Baylor's regiment. He died in service while recruiting, from a relapse in travelling too fast after being inoculated for small-pox; 25. Henry<sup>4</sup>, died in 1743, immediately after his father."

17. Robert<sup>4</sup> Washington and Alice Strother his wife had issue: 42. Thomas<sup>5</sup>, born Sept. 5, 1758, married June 1788, his cousin Sally, daughter of 15. John<sup>4</sup> Washington, of Leeds Town, and widow of Robert Harper, of Alexandria. Thomas Washington entered the army of the Revolution at the age of 19 as a lieutenant in Col. Grayson's regiment and was at the battles of Germantown and Monmouth. He was near General [Charles] Lee and heard the conversation between them when General Washington arrested his retreat and made the army advance upon the enemy, on which occasion the company to which he belonged (Captain Moore's, of Alexandria) captured a brass field piece. He soon after resigned his commission. His father gave him nearly all his estate, and Thomas Washington left about all of his to his wife." He died Jan. 15, 1807, aged 48 years, 4 months and 10 days. His wife was born Nov. 22, 1759 and died 1841. There children died in youth.

4. John Washington and his wife Miss Massey had: 10. Lawrence Washington "called Digby," who married his cousin Elizabeth Dade and had issue: 32. Fanny (Frances Townshend), married 1st her cousin Thornton Washington; 2d Griffin Stith, brother of Col. Robert and Capt. John Stith; 28. Needham L<sup>5</sup>., married Miss Alexander (and had a son; 47. Needham L., who married Miss Hawkins, of N. C., and has removed to the West); 26. George d. s. p., 27. Lawrence, d. s. p., and also John, d. s. p. (not in the printed account). 10. Lawrence Washington "was about 5 feet, 6 inches high, large limbs, remarkable for his strength, activity, industry and good management of his affairs. His wife Elizabeth Dade was tall and handsome and is every way a superior woman." 14. Katherine Washington "married her cousin, John Washington, of Hylton."

From another source the Magazine has an account of some of the descendants of 33. Henry<sup>6</sup> Washington and Sarah Ashton his wife (XXIII, 437). The names of the children as given in this communication agree with the printed account in regard to nine of the names, but gives Thomas Turner instead of Thos. Spence, "Richard Calhoun" instead of Richard C, and Hobart and Charles E, not given in the printed account. The latter is a copy from the family Bible and is no doubt the correct list.

65. Henry Washington married at "Berryhill," Jefferson Co., Ky., Catherine Robinson Bate, and had issue: 1. James Henry, died young; 2. Glovinia Eugenia, married Alfred Harris, of Ky., 3. Lucy Attala, married Andrew Jackson Alexander, of Ky.; 4. Sarah Lenore, died young;

5. Richard Calhoun, died young; 6. Ella Catherine, married Richard S. Herndon, of Ky.; 7. Robert West, married Eliza Pumphrey, of La.; 8. Mary West, married Theophilus Mumford, of Ky.; 9 John Throckmorton, died young; 10 Henry Thornton, died young; 11. Bate, married Millie, daughter of Squire Helm, and granddaughter of Governor Helm, of Ky.; 12. Susannah Bond, married Dr. Richard Tydings; 13. Georgiana, married her brother-in-law, Rd. S. Herndon.

---

THE GORSUCH AND LOVELACE FAMILIES
(Continued)

(By J. H. P., Baltimoye, Md.)

CHILDREN OF THE REV. JOHN<sup>3</sup> GORSUCH (DANIEL<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) AND HIS WIFE ANNE LOVELACE. (Continued):

9. CHARLES<sup>4</sup> GORSUCH OF BALTIMORE COUNTY AND HIS DESCENDANTS
(Continued):

6. Lovelace<sup>6</sup> Gorsuch (Thomas<sup>5</sup>, Charles<sup>4</sup>). He was the eldest son of Thomas<sup>5</sup> Gorsuch and his wife Jene Ensor, and was born about 1715. His name is usually spelled Loveless in the records. He signed, Aug. 1st, 1733, as "next of kin", the inventory of Robert Gorsuch (ante 24;218,220). He was foreman of the Baltimore County Grand Jury, August 1744 (Balto.Co.Court Proc. 1743;293), and in 1754 and 1755 was appointed Overseer of Highways from "Steven Gill's to the Court Road and from Jones Falls to William Pearce's along the Court Road" (Balto.CoCourt Proc. B.B.,No.A,447 & B.B.,No.B,396). Loveless Gorsuch purchased from George Ogg in 1755 Morgan's Tents Resurveyed, 238 acres, and Plum Tree Bottom, 30 acres, on Morgan's Run, near the present Baltimore-Carroll county line (Balto.Deeds B.B.,No.J,385). Loveless Gorsuch patented Tom's Folly, 52½ acres, which he and his wife Sarah sold Sept. 13th, 1769, to Luke Davis (Balto. Deeds A. L., No. A, 453). He inherited Friendship, 120 acres, [on Beaver Dam Run] under his father's will, 1774. Lovelace<sup>6</sup> Gorsuch was a Quaker as is shown by the probate of the will of his brother Thomas<sup>5</sup> Gorsuch. The family name of his wife Sarah is not known. He married her prior to 1752. His will, dated May 8th, 1779, and proved July 10th, 1783, shows that he was then living on his plantation Friendship, which he leaves to his son John, and divides Morgan's Tents and Plum Tree Bottom between his sons Nathan and Thomas. He names as his children who are settled and already have had their filial portions, Jane, Nathan, Thomas, Sarah, Ann and Elizabeth. He leaves special bequests to his children Ruth, Rachel, Prudence, Charity, Charella, Elizabeth, Ann, Sarah, and Jene. His executors